Dear D<sup>r</sup> Hamilton

Will you kindly this note M<sup>r</sup> Brodie?

A gentleman Robert of Leeds wishes to an effort introduce the bible into Angola not knowing M<sup>r</sup> Brodies address venture to trouble you

With kind to

M<sup>rs</sup> ( H ) &

David Livingstone

[0002]

He has been led to from reading account of country - He of a very temperament the word ! in his letters and is of - I dont him at more that he writes me, and in the he proposed adopt I feared

Sir Roderick had a thousand at reception last night that he might lose a of money & do good. I therefore caution dealing with the . This he has in good spirit now asks me tell him what outfit money &c to be given a man who been [an] agent for

[0003]

British & ( F.) Bible who propo[se] settle at Loanda

Everybody was there & D<sup>r</sup> Beke would be source of the Nile man

[0004]

I advise him now apply to M<sup>r</sup> Silva your elder tell him that dont know any[-] of Silvas religious but that Portuguese have very religious and have given him M<sup>r</sup> Brodies card the assurance he will have sympathy him. The is gone and
