My Dear Sir

On my return

From Oxford I

found your favour of the 18th enclosing a Dft for £31.4

being an addition

[0002]

to the Testimonial fund from Dundee and

I now beg to return you my

hearty thanks

for your very great kindness in reference to this and the rest of that fund

I shall ever look back to the

[0003]

unexpected generosity

of the people at

Dundee with feelings

of gratitude and

regret that

previous exertions

in Edinburgh

had so "knocked

me up" that I could not well

express what

I meant when

with you

[0004]

I believe the whole

sum you mention

was united to the

London Fund, but it would as you
think have been better had it come
direct as I am proud
of my connection with Scotland. I thank you also
for kindly forwarding
the copies sent
of the book and am
gratefully yours
David Livingstone
