My Dear Father

The arrival of Captⁿ Nardon & M^r Oswel immediately after the departure of Mamary, has prevented my writing by this opportunity. - They are now preparing to start. - Baba & his party also are making ready for departure

M^{rs} Mamary have mentioned our desires respecting a waggon of M^r Oswel. We find he is perfectly willing to oblige us in reference to the payment. Mentions ten years as soon enough for the liquid[...] tion of debt and now desires me to write you a line & ask you to inspect the waggon for me. I have no skill in waggons whatever and he is [^] [in] the same condition with respect to that kind of knowledge. We wish the matter referred to your judgement the length of time however given is a consideration which will outweigh any defect in the vehicle [0002] M^r O. asked if it would be necessary to shorten the bands previous to sending is up. Will you give your opinion as to this step.? I do not know what ought to be done. As to painting I think it would be better to get the paint & oil & we can do the needful here. - M^r O. purposed leaving it at about a day & half from Colesbery. I have thought men might be sent down from Kuruman and if you send a span of oxen while the expenses of [the] men will be put to my account. all the goods you may send for or boxes waiting for you at Colesbery will or may be drawn along by your oxen. If you can make any arrangement of this sort, it will oblige us much. If not convenient at present- M^r O. will leave the waggon at the place appointed till some other time. The place appointed is M^r Nelson Orlogpoorts river 35 south of ~~Kuruman~~ Colesbery [0003] we have not been able to pay Baba because we have not money sufficient-There are Forty two dollars for the carriage of goods, and some other work additional about which as we have to count yet I set down as other ten - if you will kindly advance these two sums- it will still farther oblige us. Edwards & I seem in the same predicament for money. Wish somebody would leave me a hundred or two But nobody thinks enough of me for that- None of my forefather were worth their breeches else I might have had something. They wore kilts. poor fellows. - The gentlemen are on the point of mispanning and as they are waiting here my thoughts have been confused- I shall send Macaca by M^r Cumming for enclosure in M^r Whish's box- This address to be written on the lid (perhaps tiomed) Charles Whish Esq^{re} 144 New City Road - Glasgow- if sent Cape ways - care of Jamieson & Co [Cape Tow[...]]

[0004] you might scold me as you like We could both speak plainly enough if together & let the righteous smite me &c. I should not grumble at any amount of faithful sunting Affectionately yours

We hope to have time to write before M^r C arrives - excuse all the blunders in this - All are well. Robert IV improving- Hope Mamary got out safely- Should like much to have a visit from yourself
