My Dear Waller

Read the enclosed
and you will be able to form an opinion
on the accounts sent to me. the mules and
one cart are 144.!
shipping them to
Natal & Zambesi
21. & 25- Keep
at Natal 10- though
I gave Sir George Grey power to send shooting experience - no end of rabbits - partridges - pheasants - hares here but it could it be sent with a remark from you

[0002]

the mission party & goods by the Hetty Ellen when she came to the Cape. I had to pay 354 - 7 - 6 by an agreement made by Captain Wilson & Rae
at Mosambique for additional freight -
and I thought half of this might be paid
by the mission but knowing that I had 50 for mules to pay
I did not send any account to the Cape - the goods

bestly to shoot when one has leave nay is even. invited to shoot. The pleasure of [0003]

given by Bishop Tozer might square
the matter but I wish to deal fairly &
in a friendly way
I think put it
to themselves - but though saying "quits"
would be the easier
way. and. I guess
it might be best
for the mission
I dont know my
men. I would prefer that they had the best of it for in my heart of hearts I wished them success

sinning is awantingMaulin for the Photos.
had you been of my party I should have tried to get a consulate for you. David Livingstone

After reading & you think it might send the enclosed on - I see Steere puts in a note that the bales of calico for which I gave double what he sold
others at Senna are very much below their real value - You may do me a good turn
if you help them with your views as to what is right. I never intended to take anything but the bills sent set up my back. Thanks for the note for the other affair I wrote a note last night with my Rabbit
