My Dear Sir

On my return
From Oxford I found your favour of the 18th enclosing
a Dft for £31.4
being an addition

[0002]

to the Testimonial fund from Dundee and I now beg to return you my hearty thanks
for your very great kindness in reference to this and the rest of that fund .
I shall ever look back to the

[0003]

unexpected generosity of the people at Dundee with feelings
of gratitude and regret that previous exertions
in Edinburgh
had so "knocked me up" that I could not well
express what I meant when with you .

[0004]

I believe the whole
sum you mention was united to the London Fund, but it would as you think have been better had it come direct as I am proud of my connection with Scotland. I thank you also for kindly forwarding
the copies sent
of the book and am
gratefully yours

David Livingstone
