My Dear M<sup>r</sup> Murray

the payments which will oblige me making for Agnes as follows:

One hundred & twenty a year to Madame Hocédé, probably the best of doing it would for an arrangement be made in Paris

[0002] which she could draw quarterly - and also Pound a month pocket money Agnes

A sum will also required for & German and for , and this

Agnes will ascer-and give you

[0003]

She has clothing to last till goes out of and she will consult

M<sup>rs</sup> Murray as to dresses she need, and will be good to take

M<sup>rs</sup> Murray's opinion sufficient for the necessary be spent in dress.

[0004]

In any question that arise you find M<sup>r</sup> Oswell's with your sufficient for : M<sup>r</sup> Young's will always reasonable and value. But in all I am sure that will act for the or what at the seems to be so and that I shall be and thankful may be the
