Lieut Garforth R N

Commanding H.M.S. Penguin

Sir

I have the honour to bring to your notice the state of the Expedition with which I am entrusted by H.M Government, & to beg you to take it with your kind consideration with a view to render us what aid may be in your power.

We were detained a long time at Bombay waiting for the Man of War appointed by the Commodore to convey us to the East Coast - that detention was not so injurious to us as that which we have suffered here, for though the whole party has been provided liberally for by His Highness the Sultan, many of us have suffered severely from fever & all are daily becoming physically much less fit for the arduous duties before us - This deterioration arises solely from want of Employment in an unhealthy climate - and if we remain much longer I fear that we shall be obliged to abandon the work entrusted to us by Government.

In addition to the failure of health in ourselves personally we have lost ten beasts of burden - others are sick & as I know nothing more conducive [0003]

to recovery for ourselves & animals than active Employment I crave the favour of your assistance as far as the Rovuma & I earnestly hope that the aid which you can most effectually render, may not seriously interfere with your other duties on the coast.
From the uniform readiness with which the Admiralty have always granted me all the assistance in their power I feel positive that their Lordships would promptly approve of your lending me a helping hand - [0004]

I have the honour to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant

David Livingstone
