My Dear M^r Murray

I have always thought that Sir Roderick ought to have all the honour which
a dedication
could give. the

[0002]

only thing which struck my mind
in addition to this was that M^r Maclear having shewn a great deal of disinterested
kindness - I
perhaps might make a sort of double dedication

[0003]

to Sir R. & T. Maclear
but there is no
precedent for this. Is there?

I go for Sir R
at all events.

I have heard
nothing from
the printers but
sent all the paged
matter & a lot more.

[0004]

I was a few days
at a section of the geological structure

which with the aid of Sir R. is very good. Wrote to Gray about tsetse
he will get Ford
to do it. I have not given the concluding chapter but will send in all the rest speedily. I went to Sir H Holland. Kind regards to M^{rs} Murray D Livingstone
