

Letter to Arthur Tidman, 26 January 1857

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

57 Sloane St

26th Jan^y 1857

Rev^d D^r Tidman

Dear Sir

It has my mind times since meeting on last that remark you as to my to do anything

[0002] the Society and recommendation undertake ten or public meetings the principal towns forgetfulness the complaint my throat which me from speaking. got the uvula excised Cape Town in

1852. Found that relieved me

[0003] but a of an hours in the open always causes and loss of since as well before the operation made a fair trial the Mauritius for purpose of raising fund for a sailors there - thousands our men calling that port annually

[0004] robbed and abused every variety of character but found my deficiency remaining. I believe mentioned this as soon I came, to M^r Prout, perhaps not untill to you. If is does now often prove hindrance in conversation is very distressing the open air & large audiences

[0005] letter of the Directors I recieved at

Quilimane seemed imply equal forget-of the fact I surely gave of it Cape Town this I may possibly mistaken.

[0006] recieved the message M^{rs} L. and will to be you on the specified