My Dear M^r Murray

I hear the
drawings are to
be taken down
at Stafford
House today. If you think anything else
[0002]

is needed M^r Wolf
ought to go before
they are removed

My brother will
be in London
tomorrow evening
He will I daresay
help me on a
little quicker I believe he left
before my advice
about £30 came [0003]
to hand. but it is safe. M^r Binney
has made a good
many corrections
I shall embody
yours & his
together. He advised
a few sentences
on the change in
the feelings in my
history without
which many religious
people would set
the book down

[0004]

as a merely intellectual affair and that I was not a religious missionary at all.
I do so in 4 or 5
sentences & then
state that I will not refer to the religious
feelings again not
to the evangelistic
labours to which
these impelled me
this will take away
the handle which
some might use

[0005]

against it. M^r Binney
is pleased with it
and has also smoothed
some harsh sentences
which might have given offence
to the sensitive
M^r MacLehose of [Glasgow] tells me he has ordered 200 copies
so if it does not
sell well a heavy
sin will be at
my door!

[0006]

I only wish it were in a state for
selling at all

I am to get a
view of Loando
from Captain
Need - & one of a Baobab tree
