

Letter to James Hamilton, 28 November 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Bombay 28 Nov

1865

My Dear D<sup>r</sup> Hamilton

I delivered myself a paper at Malta the cholera was and as the was "seedy" I fear fell a victim - I have heard about it . I thought writing you sketch of my of

[0002] today but am too near post now for any of the sort as I am going to Zanzibar a few days I can you only a little note might let me how you all for you very soon not be able - shall soon dive that darkness broods over region west of the Rovuma and may

[0003] away to the of the Val & come back am going in a few in a small sent as a to His Highness Sultan. He was over and gave me Firman and carried buffaloes for me one of his ships. buffaloes are to be as beasts of & an to see if they with the bite of the - the Governor an excellent man

[0004] like to go with himself were he

20 years younger - would-you if Mrs Hamilton spare you from consumption have seen many Irish bretheren

& found them rather proud hearing that D<sup>r</sup> H. editor of the Evang. . You send to them all. I am more a Presbyterian - a Independent lowchurch jack of all &c. If you send address care of Lennox Esq. Foreign it will come free & so do all letters. My love & remembrances to you all Livingstone forgetting Aunt Julia & Lady Price