My Dear Shaw

I return the letter on the Falls with thanks. I had got all the ideas
down from
memory but
am glad to see it again. I never was favoured

[0002]

with an introduction to Norris

I was invited by D^r Lloyd to Dublin
and if I go am to stay with Sir - Magregor I think
but it is doubtful
if I be in the country then

Can you oblige me
by sending my Daguerrotype to Brand- he will

[0003]

forward it to Miss Moysey who is Gabriel's cousin

Moffat who made
the map is the son of the M^r Moffat whose journal is published in yours. He has a turn for geography

and will be much
pleased with your
notice of him.
He sent the map to
you (the original one)
that you might

[0004]
see the aid he had rendered to Hall & Arrowsmith without ever being acknowledged
He will be delighted by your mention of
him. Before this map came I knew that it had been used by Hall &
enquired about
it of Arrowsmith
with a view to incorporate it
in that of the book

[0005]
Arrowsmith knew
of it and I have the impression he has a copy of it. He said some difficulty
had occurred with Hall & himself about
it. I understood that the map was
to be incorporated & acknowledged
as Moffat's - and
when the original
came took it to you

[0006]
the very next morning
after its arrival
as directed. I suppose Arrowsmith imagines
this is different from what he copied. Why wont

he apply to the council
like a man?

I am ashamed at
not having written Denman and telling
of my change of residence

[0007]
I ought to have said that Arrowsmith
makes a general
map of all Africa & a special one
for the book
I suppose he intends to incorporate Moffats in the general one
I shall write S^r Roderick

[0008]

Believe me Ever
Yours &c

D. Livingstone

How should I refer to Ad^l Smith-
What is his proper
name & titles-
He interested himself
about the watch
What else?
