

Letter to John Kirk 2, 24 March 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

24 March
1865

My Dear Kirk

I feel very much at the to print reply. They to have refused Peters too, but this down to Germans shews to be no great themselves is an immense of "claw me & claw you" with to Germans

[0002] conceptions have fired a shot the thing "kaia" had "a grave Berlin professor" last revise & I out Berlin. I a proof you may see

Dry cupping has tried, it has the skin looser I think straightened leg but it is still to a certain degree locked speaking tonight both urged that should press Lord Dalhousie

[0003] that the Parlia-is going to be to ask a Consulate - a promise in & white. They do anything an influential like him. It only by pressing anything can got. You know I suppose - you think that would do any give me his and I could him at the same or send my

[0004] to you if you a reference to would help. The my brother got his not through me indirectly & that I would not blate to apply another - I think really it is high that pressure be applied it is evident to M^r Wild having to Sir Roderick after he had what I to Lord Russell Lordship must

[0005] said "See what Sir says first"

Suppose you put the fairly to Lord - "no consulate the whole 900 of coast which Portuguese claim - [on] an equal line Madagascar slaving is on &c &c.

The Comoro consulate a mere nothing
& the Zanzibar one too much do - then the results be expected besides

[0006] consulate having a vote of the Lords insisted on at Benn-batouk
-bay this would be the Govern-being forced follow the vote &c that will a good case fairly in Lord head I feel sure you, and so people app[...] unless pressure put on nothing be done -

I am &c David Livingstone

Have you Captⁿ Grants address?

And I am to get no salary