

Letter to George Grey, 20 October 1859

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org) [0001]

Shire, 20th Oct^r 1859

My Dear Sir George

We are obliged to dismiss two of our members, M^r Thornton the geologist for whom I am sorry as he fails from sheer want of knowledge of the world and of field geology. We could not get him to work at all though he would read at geology for ever. He is very [0002]

well up in school geology but never shewed the least heart to working in the field. I gave him eight months trial, and when I was out of sight nothing was done. He trusts to get on by dint of cleverness at home - not knowing how different it is to climb.
We tried all that talking could do D^r Kirk, My brother & myself, but it was impossible to stir him up from a state of inveterate laziness.

We are obliged to send M^r Baines away too. He worked well but having had fever [0003]

I thought it kind to leave him at Tette during the unhealthy months and not expose him to the lower Shire whither with D^r Kirk I proceeded myself. As soon as my back was turned he associated with certain "ticket of leave" Portuguese and made away with nearly all our provisions - four barrels of loaf sugar - butter - cheese hams - &c &c I put it to his head having been affected by fever but he had stolen from his fellow members private property, marked his