My dear M<sup>r</sup>Napier

I thank you very much for kindly remembering me in the Launch and trial trip. I shall be unable to avail myself the pleasure of seeing the launch but I should like mention only to friends who can appreciate them. I am your the last duty o her yesterday Tell Mrs Napier that the great change appeared only an hour before the dose in quicker breathing. My sister said. "I think the Saviour has come for your mother. You can lippon yourself to him." "Oh yes she said in a way that only we Scotch can understand gave a last look to our little girl & send " bonnie wee lassie" closed her eyes & soon all was still. We are thankful to believe that she is safe in the haven of mercy These little things we
