H. M. S. Pioneer off Kongone

3 April 1862

Dear Captain Washington

in a storm while Captain Wilson was assisting us up the River. Went to Mosambique and there the Pantaloon being disabled sent her to Johanna for provisions Captain Wilson has now given us six months provisions
and all the preserved meats you kindly sent

[0002]

We have recieved all the tools we need for the road &c. and being well found in food will now set ourselves with all our might to the one great object of transporting the steamer to the Lake.

The failure of our stores for but a short time involved great expense -
the rum for the men
was done and fearing
that we should get no more for them till May I purchased Wardroom
mess rum to the value [0003]

of £21. Our quinine wine is also expended - so to carry on the expenditure of wine & quinine for the sick I bought the cheapest of the expensive wines of the Mess for over other £20 - and hope this eight dozen will suffice till we get a supply of cheap Cape wines which have been ordered. The

wines on pressure by the fear of being blamed if we should happen to be without cordials has

run away with the money on hand. I have drawn £50 from M<sup>r</sup>Sewell paymaster of the Gorgon and fear this will not clear off my bills for calicoes ordered from the Portuguese. I have made advances to the men as wages also from private sources, and may have to do the same to pay our Johanna men their years wages but will let you know all about it - this is chiefly to advise you of the above £50.

Yours &c

David Livingstone

We towed the brig over the bar yesterday - Gorgon leaves and we go in tomorrow morning [0005]

Some dysentery has troubled some [0006]

of the men lately - possibly from eating beans while our flour was done
