man if you see nothing. He is in ~~Bond St~~ Old Broad St. City. With kind regards to M^{rs} Murray I am &c David Livingstone

1864

My Dear M^r Murray

As you kindly promised to take notice of any
quiet cottage that might suit me
I may mention that I have resolved to take my daughter
who is now
woman grown
with me to keep it

[0002]

and as she will require a music master if the cottage were where one would call
occasionally it would be an advantage. I am keeping myself
free from all public appearances
as they call lecturing except the British Association

[0003]

A second son who lost his health
at a abomin [a]bly drained Scotch school will accompany me to England &

I think with son & daughter I may get on comfortably
My Scotch friends
think that by giving the public information on the actual working of the slave trade

[0004]
and the rock on which the mission split
I may do good. It will be difficult to do the last without offence - but we can try to do it in a kindly spirit. the bishop of Oxford
is anxious to see me. I conjecture on the Mission
subject.

D^r Meller has a brother in a house agent's employment. Would it be well to employ this
