

Letter to John Murray III, 20 February 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

20 February

1865

My Dear M^r Murray

Will you be

kind enough to

give M^r Waller

an introduction

to the artist-? He will be able to give him a

suggestion and

supposing he is

not a cantankerous

cove he will

[0002]

be benefitted. What

I meant particularly

is the end of the

fish basket which

I find has not

the zig zag opening

it ought to possess

I had to put a

great deal into the

III chapter which will cause a

little delay but

when I get that

back paging the

[0003]

rest will go on

very quickly. Prof.

Owen I am glad to hear is delighted

with the first

forty or fifty pages

He says it will be

like household

words - a bit of

butter no un-

acceptable to me in my work though
I ought not to appear to feel it
 As I am done

[0004]
with these first
forty pages or so
will you be sending them to M^{rs} L in Boston or will
you wait a little Waller has written a paper for Macmillan which I
have seen in Proof
 I am &c
 David Livingstone

[0005]
 P.S.
 What I have said
about your friends
assistance may
not be clear.
For the reasons you assign it will be of great value. Oswell
is not in the way. The want of a part about Kebrabasa has confused me
and I think the

[0006]
printer will be swearing. I was on the point of
removing to town
to be near him
but my friends
here wont let me.

 17a-32a are a
3^d Revise - the 4th revise which
I sent to Oswell
yesterday does
not come beyond

17a - so this may be considered as
supplementary the corrected
copy by friend