

Letter to [Agnes Livingstone 3], 24 December 1863

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Private Dec^r 24.1863

M^{rs} Buchanan

has written to me to know my mind in reference to your going to another school either in Scotland or England. To Miss Fisdells or to what is called a finishing school in London. the last will cost £150 a year But I reply as you seem to prefer it so do I. But dont think pray that because it is a finishing school you can finish your studies after a year there - that would be a misfortune but you may make still higher attainments

[0002]

in our own cottage if it please God to permit us that pleasure, by using the information acquired as stepping stones for future use.

She requests me to say whether I should like you to go to the communion.
Of course I should if you
in love to our saviour went to obey his command
” Do this in remembrance of me. She would like to know if you could go with them to their church on that occasion. As I see much to admire & something to deplore in all churches, I am not anxious about what body of christians you may join. I communinicate with any body of Protestants wherever I have

[0003]

the priviledge, and as you dont know where your lot may be cast it may be well to remember that all the churches who hold Jesus as the Head belong to his flock. I like the church of Scotland as well as any, but you must be guided by your own convictions of what is right. the matter is one between you & your Saviour

M^{rs} B. is right in telling you not to sleep with a woman much older than yourself. A transference of vitality often takes place the younger person loses life or power the elder gains. A child often & old
[...] leeping

[0004]

with an aunt & when put into a crib of its own quickly recovers without medicine this was well known to physicians as long ago as when King David lived to be an old man.

As you dislike the sayings of that dreadful woman dont imitate them and when you see evils in others take a lesson to avoid them in yourself. and always remember who makes you to differ from the worst. I have told her that you could visit Aunt Helen Vavasseur M^{rs}
Fitch- and M^{rs} Bevan

Braithwaite in London
we hope soon to be home i.e. sometime in summer next.