Pioneer Rovuma Bay

11th March 1861.

My Dear Captain Washington

The enclosed mess bill of M^r Rae amounting to £31.16 for 66 days was handed to me by M^r

Jones Paymaster of H.M.S. Lyra

Had it been a small sum I would have paid it and put it to the incidental expenses but it is more than I possess of public money though I have recieved a balance from M^r May of £17..17..4 I therefore send the bill on to you and refer

M^r Jones to you for settlement you will be able to explain the [0002]

account to the Foreign Office. I sent

M^r Rae to the Admiral at the Cape and requested him to furnish a passage in some Government vessel to England. He seems to have taken another route - and came to grief. He had all D^r Kirks specimens and other articles in charge but sent them all as we hear by the Cape. We dont feel well pleased at his parting with them

We go up Rovuma today

All promises fairly - No bar - 17 fathoms & no bottom felt across mouth which is a mile wide people speak a dialect very nearly allied to that of Senna, the men who knew all our discoveries long ago ought to come down with their knowledge before we come down with ours. In three months Please God we shall tell you all about it. The bishop is on board - An excellent man - and all his party D° D° David Livingstone
