

Letter to John Murray III, 4 February 1857

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

57 Sloane St.

4th February

1857

My Dear Sir

M<sup>r</sup> Routledge a M<sup>r</sup> Pardoe called yesterday morning the pamphlet, refused to look at it - they pretended was simply that might see that nothing my prejudice appeared the title page

[0002] Routledge gave a broad that he would something handsome the "Testimonial Fund" I would only give my countenance replied. Satisfy M<sup>r</sup> and you will satisfy me.

He said I have a to lose - to which merely said I dont to hurt any ones but I have [0003] evidence that generally believe narrative is by me I have nothing to do . I knew nothing it". And left them did not ask them upstairs

I saw the drawing Lake Ngami by the young man who . It is very truthful good - the others better - the relatives on the trail of the who kept to himself, as he has from Keynsham have knowledge

[0004] the frame maker who employed to mount 20 of them - Kolobeng another I could . I am afraid if any stir is made

Stevenson the companion destroy the whole

I have not yet got

Ford's address but got a bad cold

Yours &c

David Livingstone