

Letter to John Murray III, 24 September 1864

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Clifton 24th Sep^r
1864

My Dear M^r Murray

I hoped to have on you on monday but am detained visit Lord Taunton. after that on Wednesday proceed to Newstead - Mansfield begin work in . M^r Webb proprietor sent invitation to me Bombay to [0002] that my head - and having for various he overruled all, so I go - but call on you first. write now to ask to get some paper me. I like it for when pen glides over I get on much quickly. I written a good despatches different times

[0003] possess copies they do if with fuller to save - or would it better to write all afresh
my brother has journal ready wishes to get profits in America.
30000 copies of last work were there. I dont see this can be for it not be true

[0004] his journal would be work - but I am willing to aid him I honestly can. I to talk to you this. You need write - he is now London & may call on you. got over the Bath affair many a cold shiver the mere prospect of it - am as well as be expected. After my labour pains sense brought forth very different from report given to the Reporters it seemed to please and I am &c David Livingstone