

Letter to [Robert Arthington?], 4 May 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

8 Dover (S^t) Piccadilly

London

4 May 1865

My Dear Sir

Your note of having gone my late address recieved it this .

Last night I was D^r Hamilton's

& met the young man ^r Brodie to whom a former occasion referred and he me that M^r Silva now living at

[0002] 's Hotel, Charing . He says that is a Protestant Portuguese extraction

& came thus far to his wife to U. S. He will her next year . I dont know he is anything a Protestant more in name. The generally very much devoid religious convictions I think you get all the you [0003] from him.

M^r Brodie is an in D^r Hamilton's though still young man and I feel sure you to Mr . I therefore his card than attempt give you second information

As M^r Brodie a Christian I suggest an with first and [0004] might depend on sympathy in objects. He give you clearer insight Silva's character I can.

Silva will know expenses better anyone else

Wishing you all I am &c

David Livingstone

Silva leaves for Loanda the end of this week