

Letter to George L. Conyngham, 30 September 1864

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

30 (Sep^t) 1864

My Dear M^rConyngham

Could you me with the books in my Despatches printed. I have idea that I to have recieved but did not. wish them them as information

[0002] already in may save pen running the same words third time for both wrote & copied in Africa.

I am here compiling narrative of our during the six years. It a quiet beautiful where Byron and Mr Webb

[0003] present possessor Newstead Abbey an African of mine. I you to know I am but to be known for all the people of the write to evidently thinking I am one of . If you oblige me the Blue books

[0004] know you will with accustomed comply. send them either Murray's - Albemarle (St) by Rail to Newstead Newstead is private station on way to Mansfield you will confer favour on your servant

David Livingstone

All the shells of the Lake quite new & so were fishes. I hope you recovered your shells