My Dear Sir

Having been advised by my friends to delay my visit to Portugal
for a week or so
on account of the epidemic now
raging at Lisbon

[0002]

I have [thought] that I might accomplish my visit to Bradford
in the meantime,
and therefore propose
to go thither on uesday the 10th Nov<sup>r</sup> if that day will be convenient for the friends there.

The Mayor kindly invited me to his house and I believe that I have a

[0003]

similar invitation from yourself. I feel much obliged to you
both and as I am quite content with
the smallest accom modation I should like to accept

of that which will entail the least trouble. I am not aware whether M<sup>r</sup> Darlington with whom I have corresponded is the Mayor

[0004]
but if either you
or he will drop
a line of directions
you will much
oblige yours &c
David Livingstone
