My Dear Sir
the only day

I have next week
is Tuesday, and that in consequence of the authorities
having refused
my brother in law

[0002]

permission to go to Africa. He was about to marry on that day and a change of wind having taken place at the mission house
he is requested to study medicine
for two months!
I was sorry that I could not fulfil

[0003]

my intention of visiting you before but now the time is past, as next week is our last. Next Monday week we go to see our children
and do not return to London again
as we sail a few days after Thanks for your kind thoughts about

me. I regret

[0004]
that pressing duties have prevented my seeing you more

I have not seen Rookes' letters
unless his were among a host
which have been sent to me & which I could not even look at

Yours very truly
David Livingstone
