My Dear M^r Murray

I have made a fair attempt to get on in the way
of dictating from my journal. M^r Loysdon writes very nicely and I am satisfied with his [0002]
abilities but I find that I cannot succeed the fault
being entirely in myself. I feel quite unable to dictate continuously
or give a connected narrative without seeing the preceding
parts of the sentence
I am sorry I
[0003]
have given you so much trouble
and beg you to pay Mr L for today.

I shall go on
as usual slow
though that way
is unless you
think otherwise

Believe me &c

David Livingstone

I have paid him the sum of $7/6$
