

Letter to John Murray III, 9 June 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org) [0001]

Burnbank Road

Hamilton

9th June 1865

My Dear M^r Murray

Madame Hocede
's fee is £120 per annum - she says
that Music Masters
charge from ten to twenty francs an hour - German
masters generally five. What washing may come to
I dont know [0002]
but I shall get more accurate information by & bye.

Sir Rodericks
name may go out of the Dedication
He liked it himself
but I shall explain
and he will not object. You had better expunge
it & send it to press. I send the last sheet
[0003]
all correct, through Oswell to Press.

I am going to pay
a promised visit
to some friends

at D^r Daubeny's Oxford next week & will call either going or coming

Could you recal
a note book
lent for the Rovuma wood
cut & leave it for me where [0004]
I could get it? I need it for returning to that River.

I am &c

David Livingstone

Do you know if there is any truth in the reported resignation of Sir Bartle Frere
in the Times. His departure would be a grievous loss
to me in Bombay.