

Letter to John Murray III

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

57 Sloane St
5th March

My Dear Sir

I got a present of a copy of D^r Smith's work from himself
last night. It only wants binding.
What a pity we did not know sooner. It will perhaps be impossible to countermand the one ordered already .

[0002]

I have thought an antelope named Aakon
should be introduced into one of Wolf's pictures never saw
it and I did. he horns & foot he got his picture from were brought by M^r & myself, the skin
was sent by me
to Colonel Steele. It lies or rather hides
itself in the water with the horns put

[0003]

back horizontally with the back and only
the tip of the nose
above water . It is more paunchy than in picture
there is room for it in the picture with the other new antelope .

I should like too another pretty little antelope we have which is figured in Angus'
book.

he only thing M^{rs}
L. did at Lake Ngami

[0004]
was to make a cup of tea for me - didn't turn up the whites of her eyes or do the sentimental at all
so you must not make her holding up her little finger even .
You might oblige me
by sending for "Harris & Smith tomorrow .

I am &c.

David Livingstone

The large frog in Smith is not the eatable fellow .