1857

My Dear D^r

Can you

lend me the letter which contains

an account of the waterfall

of the Zambesi

I am at that

[0002]

point now and would like to see it again

as I wrote

that description

with care

We came straight home

on Thursday

and did not

sleep in London

[0003]

We were well

recieved but

I did not make the acquaintance

of Acland.

I am Dear D^r

Ever Yours D. Livingstone

that ruffian Arrow-

smith is putting

all the blame

on his delay on me

[0004]

Will you give

my daguerrotype

likeness which was sent home

from Loanda
by M^r Gabriel to
M^r Brand - M^{rs}
L. wishes to return it as it was only a loan & Brand will send it to Gabriel
