

Letter to Robert Moffat 1, [1 April 1845]

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

I enclose a letter for Robert which I wrote on the Molopo, if it will do address it If not tell me & shall try & write a better = I have my answer to

Mr Edwards letter open, the other to the Directors written on the Molopo & may be sent off immediately you think it ought to be sent now they may both go together

Livingston

Mabot[sa]

1st April 1845

R M

R. Moffat

Kuruman

[0002]

Richardson's dictionary, the hamper in which apples were, and sail cloth bag in which the was rolled up. If anything else was to go we have forgot but should it occur to we shall return it by first opportunity M<sup>r</sup> Hume could sell us one of his mills should be glad, for we have both wheat & we could grind. We have excellent but a worm plagues them & kills plants. What will destroy them?

Cornelius came & spoke to me about his soul on last. He seemed much affected, I wished he gone out straight to you. When he does come will remember him. Sign<sup>d</sup> D. & M. Livingstone