

Letter to Agnes Livingstone 1, 30 August 1862, 21 October 1862

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Johanna 30 Aug 1862

My Dear Mother

We came to this a few days ago and an opportunity of sending so I write though I have much to say. We are our way to another called the Rovuma which we hope to an outlet to those which we with so much toil . We wish to be from the Portuguese are inveterate slave and turn all our to the forwarding of [0002] horrid traffic. We to explore Rovuma boats - and in December return to place the Nyassa on the Lake that name. the mission by the High party may yet good but they have to learn. I wish every success but may be better to stand in contact with than I have been as blunders they make put on my shoulders Portuguese would like worm them out of the by their slaves they remain in

[0003] background. I lately called on the Governor Tette to prevent a private who had armed large party of blacks waged war from them & he has to my request. had a great deal of in consequence of so long down in lowlands - and exposed a way I never for dear Mary. The man whose negligence did all had fever himself was jaundiced but saved at deaths door can cure it in general

[0004] quickly but sometimes resists all our efforts have written to Oswell by occasion but fear may not be able to do to Agnes & Thomas

With kindest salutations my sisters & to you dear mother and Anna Mary I am affectionately

David Livingstone

I think it may be better Robert to come out for a while. I thought the best legacy could leave him but thought not he & must in life accordingly