My Dear Sir

It certainly would be very nice to spend a short time in the pleasant haunts to which you most kindly invite me, but

[0002]

I think that duty compels me to decline the enjoy ment. I am at present lionizing -
a work to which I have no appetite,
but different
friends seem anxious for it and I think it may lead to the opening of Africa

[0003]

to the gospel and submit accordingly
If M^r Cecil is with you, pray present my kindest regards
I have not had time to call on him since my return and indeed
I have gone no

where on pleasure
I only saw the [0004]
Chrystal Palace once when about to leave London
and the Art treasure exhibition when about to leave Manchester. the book is all in the printer's hands &
will be published on 10th November
With many thanks for your kindness
I am &c
David Livingstone
