

Letter to John Pennell

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

7th March

1864

I hereby certify that John Pennell served in the Zambesi Expedition from 11th March 1861 to 15th February 1864 and during the whole of that time his conduct has given me the greatest satisfaction - He is thoroughly well behaved, very attentive to his duty and always respectful to his superiors - He seems good tempered - very obliging - - He knows his duty & has certainly performed it well - I can recommend him strongly to his superiors as a thoroughly trustworthy honest man

David Livingstone