My Dear M^r Murray

Having been in Edinburgh did not receive note till this - Oswald attend to Preface but be sure I sent him note to point out second line top of page IV to add a sentence to [0002] such as suggested.

The delay till Nov^r all right & proper

I mean to write Madame Hocédé and I shall the offer kindly made, trust to you pay for Agnes she requires it, put down may be against in your account is £120 a year [0003] something for , and , possibly - so that time may be occupied she be fitted making her way in future should not have me aid her.

I did not write Madame Hocédé because wished to consult M^r Young & saw him yesterday.

[0004]

Professor & M^{rs} are so much by the recent of a most promising only son that do not like to trouble about

Agnes, if you & M^{rs} would give a word of advice direction in absence, it will a great obligation the money be convenient I need not anything about

Agnes to the Trustees

Yours ever faithfully
