My Dear Kirk

I took a run over to Youngs a week ago and thence went to Edinburgh to talk to Lord Dalhousie
but was unfortunate enough to find him at the Assembly on the last day of meeting.

When that was over

I was too fatigued with padding about to feel that I could appear to advantage

[0002]

and it was too late for a call besides - I had to come away here for I had promised to come back. My mother being very far gone, I fear sinking gradually - and not long for this world.

She had Bronchitis.

The lower part of the lungs seems to be impervious. and she feels as if choking

At her age, 82, no hope of recovery can be entertained. I have got Stewart to make enquiries as to Lord

[0003]

Dalhousies's whereabouts without saying what my object is, and if I can leave my poor mother will make a journey to where he may be

I was just an afternoon & morning at Youngs, and did not see your brother or the new works.

I have written to Sunley for Johanna
men. It does not seem feasible to go into Mombassa & hand oneself & goods over to people of whom we know next [0004]
to nothing & on whom we have no hold. I may get a few of some other tribe of Indians from Sir Bartle Frere as a body guard. He is a very able man without doubt, and has worked himself up by sheer ability alone - so notwithstanding anything to the contrary, I think there will be no mistake in placing some reliance on him.

Tom's complaint comes back if he overexerts himself,
which from feeling hearty & strong he is rather induced to do, or [0005]
if he gets cold. He has grown a great deal & is growing fast.
He got a prize for drawing yesterday.
The picture was exhibited, and is very much better than I had any idea of. He must be taking after his father! who is great in that line!!

Oswell got prizes for being dux in six departments - yesterday I went to see the distribution.
German - Geography
scriptural knowledge [0006]

French & Latin & The
recitations in German & English far exceeded anything I ever saw when I was a boy.
We hear nothing of poor Bob & I fear never will. I think that it cannot be denied that the confederates treated their prisoners cruelly. They had not rations enough for their soldiers, and we cannot wonder that they starved their prisoners. It would be a pity if they hung Davis, but I cannot conceive why he is so lauded as a [0007]

high minded gentleman He fought that he & others might be served with - out
paying servants wages. We dont call a man a gentleman who can't & wont pay his way. The South has a gigantic task now in undoing all that slavery has done in debasing these millions of negroes. Of course they wont work now nor should I if I had been a slave.

I got my evidence to correct but had already corrected it in a copy of M^r Arthur Mills & trusted him to deliver it but [0008]
he has forgotten & it will go uncorrected
with several mistakes in it which I regret but I recommended the keeping up the settlements. The words
"strong native princes!!
Do they mean to hold up bellows like Daliomey Docemo
King Peppel &c. If so that is a mistake
A strong middle class of christian traders should be formed and though not equal to a middle class elsewhere they would be pre vented by Each other from glaring wrongs

If I get to Edinburgh soon I will call on your mother David Livingstone
