Dear Sir

I thank you for your long and interesting letter and sorry I cannot time to your good- by a suitably reply am busy with my book a pamphlet is not mine

[0002]

With no one did I a more meeting with my late father and no one would have enjoyed more pleasure of con[-] on my and than unto but it is not will but that the wisest best kindest that [0003] be done. Good the will of our gracious Lord

My arm about you kindly is quite except a joint many - no or uneasiness a want of stead-iness in shooting (i.e. in the iron on the anvil carving [0004] operation has performed & fear there is no for any as I fulfill my with African attendants privelege of the the Livingstone great is the more work scribbling than mortal man do.

May God bless and you

(D.) Livingstone
