My dear Sunley

I got your letter
last night and am like
yourself sorry that we had no opportunity
of conversing together
about the future, but I was not sure that I should not meet you
at home in England.
You ought to have
mentioned what things
you required and I
should have written to M<sup>r</sup>Soares to send them and if I needed them [0002]
again they could be returned

I am glad the cart suits you. I am going out again in a few months
but to the North of Zanzibar. I am sorry that you did not advise Captain Fraezer to try his sugar plantation on the mainland. as he will have all the difficulties to contend against in the slave owners over again
which have always hampered
you. Have you still the intention of trying what you can do in a wider sphere on the continent? I have kept my steamer to see if I can get a good spurt [0003]

up some of the rivers & will write if I do not visit you.

I am going to the meeting of the British Association at Bath
and am bothered what
to say as public speaking is totally against the grain in my composition. I wish you
or Seedy would do it for me. Rae's friends
have been enquiring
for him. I write this scrawl simply to let you know that I have heard from you and will write again when I have time
[0004]

and am ever yours

David Livingstone

I think the consular uniform is on its way home. & I may need it. I hear you are retired. Is that true?
It was by way
of India I came home

Comp<sup>ts</sup> to Rae.
