My Dear Sir

I beg you will assure the boys who so generously expressed their approbation of my labours in Africa that nothing has delighted me more since my return to England than their honest spontaneous deed.
I give them all my warmest thanks from a heart overflowing with emotion and wishing that God may [0002]
abundantly bless them with his favour and love.

I have very little time to write to any one as I am engaged in the preparation of a narrative of my late explorations and must keep my word with one hundred and ten poor naked Africans who accompanied me from the centre of the country to the East coast and now await the fulfillment of my promise at Tete. I ought to be back to them in April but fear [0003]
after all I can do I must be about 2 months later than my appointed time in April. Were it not for this I should try and visit the boys and speak with them but as this can scarcely be I would just commend them all to the care of our Blessed Lord Jesus & ask them to try him as their friend and guide through life they may make him their confidant for he listens to every prayer wafted up to him from the lowliest bosom. In Him we live and move and have our being and he is as tender and compassionate [0004]

to everyone of them and knows all their cases and ~~needs~~[cares] as if they were the only persons in the world And then if they are like him they will all shew love to everyone about them and to everything beautiful and good and true. "He pray the best who loveth best all things both great & small for the dear Lord to whom we pray he made and loveth all"

thanking you and them again for your most friendly feelings and hoping that they may not again deprive themselves of any comfort. I am Dear Sir yours Most truly

David Livingstone
