

Letter to John Arundel, 16 November 1840

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001] Glasgow 16th November 1840

My Dear Sir

I refrained writing you respecting the books to be presented to D^r Bennett untill I could inform you of the result of the examination I underwent this morning

After about an hour's examination I was elected member of the "Faculty of Physicians & Surgeons, Glasgow" so the chief object of my journey to Scotland has been successfully accomplished

I intend going to Hamilton this evening to pay a short visit to my parents & afterwards will leave Glasgow so as to be in London on Thursday night or early on Friday morning

D^r Bennett said he should like to have either " Ellis' Madagascar" or the new work which comes out next [this] week Most of the others he has read—

[0002]

Perhaps both of the above mentioned works might be given him, as he well deserves them.

M^{rs.} Taylor & Inglis are both well & pursuing their studies vigourously. They desire me to present you their very kind regards

Yours Affectionately

David Livingston

Rev.^d J. Arundel

[0003] Paid

Rev^d J. Arundel

Mission House

Bloomfield St.

London