

Letter to John Livingstone, 20 June 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

[70] Burnbank Road
[Acc. 912.] Hamilton 20 June
1865

Dear Brother

I have to give the intimation our mother's to a better on Sunday 18th (curr.) and you to com - the same Neil and any relatives at convenience

[0002] had been long to bed but attack of Bronchitis away most her remaining strength. lingered for more two months excessive weakness & recieved the attention Janet & Agnes & day - Janet me to say she would have you long but could not. was calm & collected to the last

[0003] the changes came [71] Agnes said to "" Jesus is coming you. Can you to him."" She ""Yes."" - gave last look to Anna Mary & said ""bonnie well lassie"" & fell asleep. She to be buried Father on 22 or 23^d

I was at Oxford the time. Left her week ago better - she continued

[0004] till the change came. telegram called me yesterday & by travelling I arrived morning - and Him who sparing her 82 years has preserved faithful to himself the rest are well - word of poor Robert - Give our to all yours affectionately -

David Livingstone