My Dear D^r Hamilton

Will you kindly forward this note
to M^r Brodie?

A gentleman
called Robert Arthington of Leeds wishes to make an effort
to introduce the bible into Angola

not knowing M^r Brodies address I venture to trouble you

With kind regards to
M^{rs} (H) &
family

David Livingstone

[0002]

He has been led to this from reading
my account of that country - He seems of a very
ardent temperament
uses the word Hallelujah! in his letters and is possessed of means - I dont know him at all more that he

sometimes writes
to me, and in the course he proposed to adopt I feared

Sir Roderick had a thousand at his reception last night

[0003]

that he might lose a deal of money & do no good. I therefore advised caution
in dealing with the Portuguese. This
advice he has taken in good spirit
and now asks me
to tell him what salary outfit
passage money &c
ought to be given to a man who has been [an] agent for British & (F.) Bible Society who propo[se]
to settle at Loanda

Everybody was there & D^r Beke
He would be source of the Nile man

[0004]

I advise him now
to apply to M^r Silva
through your elder
and tell him that I dont know any[-] thing of Silvas religious feelings but that the Portuguese
generally have very weak religious convictions and
I have given him
M^r Brodies card
with the assurance that he will have Christian sympathy

with him. The card is gone and
