My Dear Sir

On searching the address you , I find I cannot lay hands on it. young man in ^r Hamilton's church 's Square told me M^r Silva's visit & said that on his

[0002] he would me know. The man gave his card but him to I no care of it

From your explanations seems that do not so need the M^r Silva can . No obstacle be made

[0003] put in the way of settler, but I question he could notes of testa-through the house at beginning of carreer. When person is known the officers they not so illiberal. plan seems feasible than it did first and I that the will

[0004] your work should be glad if any future time will let me how you on in it. By the Foreign list you find out is the Commissioner Arbiter on the side at & make about him see if he is likely to favourable or I am &c
