My Dear M^r Foster
I ought to have thanked you long ago for your kindness in searching for & sending me the very copy of the journal
I needed - but I have been so busy that the duty has been neglected till I need your help again

[0002]

trusting that you are
of a merciful disposition I have to beg that you will forward the following
enquiry to M^r Simmonds at your convenience - Whether the amount of ivory brought into the markets of the world now is as great as in 1853
or when he wrote the letter to you after Professor Owen's

[0003]

lecture - [in 1857] I cannot make out whether the amount he quoted included
all that goes from East Africa to India & China &
as I mean to quote his statement

in a footnote
I should very much like to know if he thinks the amount
now obtained
from all countries

[0004]
be equal to 10,000 cwts .
It makes a destruction of some 30 000
elephants necessary .
Will you kindly forward this enquiry to him and ask him to excuse my intrusion .

I am Dear Sir
Very faithfully
David Livingstone
