My Dear M^r Murray I shall feel obliged you add the titles of Sir Roderick as they appear in last Presidential address before the R.G.S. & this dedication to the printer. As he is to be home monday I would like him to see the proof & he suggest some alteration. I have not been to get the preface finished though half done "lionizing" is very hard work but I am on my South & will soon be done with it. I am quite out. I am now with your namesake Murray of Lintrose, Cupar Angus but leave today & if my mother better will go to Kendal, Westmoreland on monday
