

Letter to John Murray III, 6 April [1857]

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

57 Sloane St.

6th April

My Dear M^r Murray

It will be for M^r to send sheets first me as I find M^r Binney often puzzled by what [0002] correction makes clear. It will him much . He wont that this is not to used the expense be so . He likes type much it really to recom again?

[0003]

M^r B is very well to assist in any way. have now sent to him two pieces M^r Clowes every where is be spelled thus [0004] . I have my mind the words & make them . Send n^o IX when need it. And me have some the red ink man's that I correct in . I others for .

[0005]

I want a small and dictionary is one pocket with clear which is good. I have the name it is less size than this paper considerably thick

[0006]

I have curtailed Caffre war and it you a correspond in Boston want to send little money by & bye have I suppose with the

[0007] offer you

I am &c.

D Livingstone

A good likeness a bushwoman a bundle ostrich egg exists in collection at the Duchess of 's and

[0008] have it you should it. Of course would to go with and see it