

Letter to John Murray III, 8 May 1857

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

57 Sloane St

8th May

1857

My Dear M^r Murray

I enclose
a letter I got last night from M^r Adams
Would it be worth while to send it to the Athenaeum
with a note requesting ~~him~~ [Adams] to send his

[0002]

photograph to the detective police to be dealt with in the manner adopted
towards all who have similar views
of honesty & legality
The denial of advertisements is instructive as even the authors of them
start back from the deception

[0003]

practised when they see it presented to their own eyes in print in its naked deformity

The other parties are I think equally guilty for I was never asked whether I would permit

my letters to be published in a collective form

[0004]
by either the "Banner" Snow - or the L.M. Society. M^r Prout who furnished
my letters to the Banner wrote a review in it of Adam's work & told me he had done so. My sister
says it is a case of
"Satan reproving sin"

D. Livingstone

It is mortifying to come from Africa to be so handled