1857

My Dear D^r

Can you
lend me the letter which contains an account of the waterfall
of the Zambesi
I am at that

[0002]
point now and would like to see it again
as I wrote
that description
with care

We came straight home
on Thursday
and did not sleep in London
[0003]

We were well
recieved but I did not make the acquaintance of Acland.

I am Dear D^r

Ever Yours D. Livingstone

that ruffian Arrow-smith is putting
all the blame

on his delay on me

[0004]

Will you give

my daguerrotype

likeness which was sent home

from Loanda

by M^r Gabriel to

M^r Brand - M^{rs}

L. wishes to return it as it was only a loan

& Brand will

send it to Gabriel
