18 March 1865

My Dear M^r Murray

I fear that I dont

see clearly what

the note means

by B - C D. -

sheets of these

marks were correct

ed & returned from

[printer] as slips 17a-24a

- 25a 32a

3^d Revise which

I now send to you

to look at & then send

to M^r Clowes

[0002]

Lately a slip of 25a 33a came

marked by the

printer

Revise of D duplicates

First Revise - I

incorporated the

corr^t by Oswell in

it but some are

awaiting as for instance first

line of II chapt^r

wants the date I

again supply - the

slips ~~25a~~ 17a-24a &

25a 33a had better

go out of hand now

[0003]

In matter consecutive to 33a I send tomorrow

as corrected by

Oswell i.e. 33a -

43a after I have answered some questions in the matter.

If Sheet B is not quite out of hand
could the following words be inserted
in their proper
place as I have not done full

[0004]
justice to M^r Skead
zeal & labours
”the Luawe was
all carefully
sounded ~~by~~ and surveyed by M^r Skead, whose [skilful &] energetic labours
both on that river
and afterwards
in the lower Zambesi were deserving of all
praise”

[0005]
Could I procure
the loan of that part of Denman & Clapperton about
Mahometan
proselytism or
of any other
information
on that head
I have Baile
If you have not secured
a copy of the book for M^r Moffat I think

[0006]
M^r Webb will give one

Today I send
First revise 192 [3] -
-196 - First proof
