

Letter to [Wilbraham?] Taylor

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

50 Albemarle (St)

28th (Nov^r)

1857

My Dear M^r Taylor

Our plans came all to nothing and I was partly to blame for not writing you at once and more for not enlightening
my better half too

[0002]

I was on the point of starting for Lisbon yesterday
& had all packed up for Southampton
but on going to our minister to Portugal before starting he informed me that such
was the paralysis
produced by the epidemic that no
business could be

[0003]

transacted at Lisbon I have therefore to wait another fortnight before going
I made a desperate
effort to explain & apologize in person
but blundered in
on Saturday when you were of course not there. I shall come the first time

I can manage it
I have to draw up
my requisition

[0004]
and shew it here on Monday. I may go to Cambridge
as they want me much and it is a precious opportunity Did not see . He did not come. My kindest
love salutations to M^{rs} T. & aunt Gretty and all. May all grace abound towards you all from our common Lord

David Livingstone